

SG29 MAS FUNDS - STEP PREMIUM

28 February 2025

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The investment objective of SOLYS – SG29 MAS Funds – STEP Premium (the "Sub-Fund") is to seek capital appreciation over the long term by being exposed to carry strategies whose performance are mainly linked to US equity volatility markets (collectively the "Strategies"). The Sub-Fund falls within the scope of Article 6 of SFDR. The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by providing exposure to options traded mainly on US equity indices. The Sub-Fund will mainly be exposed to Strategies that systematically sell short-term put options several available trading days during the week with various maturities. The Sub-Fund's intention is to provide investors with a way to access an alternative exposure to equities. The Strategies deployed by the Sub-Fund will mainly be "Short Volatility" strategies. A "Short Volatility" Strategy means the Sub-Fund will sell options that are expected to increase in value when the market becomes more volatile. The Sub-Fund's investment strategy generates positive performance under stable or bullish equity markets conditions but, may suffer from negative performance in particular in the event of sudden drops in the market over a short period of time. The Sub-Fund will have discretion in selecting and weighting the Strategies. To select a Strategy and determine the composition of the portfolio from time to time, the Sub-Fund will follow an investment process based on due diligence and qualitative and quantitative criteria. The Sub-Fund will particularly pay attention to the robustness and the rationale of each Strategy and its fundamentals during normal or stressed market conditions.

MONTHLY COMMENT

An outperformance of European equity markets in a context of strong uncertainties regarding American economic policy weighing on sentiment.

The month of February was characterized by a significant increase in economic uncertainties, particularly from the United States. Indeed, the Trump administration repeatedly announced its intention to impose a 25% increase in tariffs on Canadian, Mexican, and European goods, along with an additional 10% increase on Chinese goods, which already had a tax rate of 20%. Alongside trade policy, announcements of job cuts and federal government spending have also heightened uncertainties regarding the budgetary aspect. Overall, this uncertainty translated into a deterioration of household and business confidence in February. In Europe, survey data for February suggests a slight improvement in activity prospects, with ongoing disinflation (2.6% for core inflation in February).

Equity markets also experienced divergent trajectories during February. In the United States, the S&P 500 fell by 1.4%, while the Nasdaq dropped by 2.8%. This decline reflects the deterioration of sentiment following the rise in political uncertainties. By style, growth stocks saw the most significant decline in February, with the S&P 500 Growth index falling by 3%, amid high valuations and less favorable guidance for companies in the AI sector. In Europe, equity indices recorded a second month of strong performance, with the Eurostoxx 50 rising by 3.3% over the month. By country, the DAX increased by 3.8% during February, while the CAC 40 rose by 2%. This strong performance reflects the ongoing cycle of interest rate cuts by the ECB, the prospects of a European recovery through defense spending, and still attractive valuations.

*In order to hedge the currency risk of hedged currency Share Classes, the Sub-Fund uses a hedging strategy which reduces the impact of changes between the currency of the Sub-Fund (USD) and the currency of the Share Class (EUR). The performance of Class H-EB EUR Shares can then be impacted by foreign exchange market upwards and downwards. Moreover, the hedging costs may negatively impact the performance of the Share Class. The SGIXSTEP (excess return) and the SGIXST3P (excess return) indices being denominated in USD, should investors choose to compare the relevant Share Class's performance to the one of the indices above, investors should consider the hedging strategy in place.
